Ray Donovan, House of Cards & The Deuce House of Cards' final season stars Robin Wright and Diane Lane who are busy trying to be bitchier than Kevin Spacey ever was as President Underwood. "I used to talk about playing a bitch but I don't even know how I feel about that anymore because one person's bitch is another person's hero," says Lane. Robin Wright, who plays the nation's first women President promised, "No nude scenes. I want people to recognize me for my work, not just for being pretty." Ok!... Showtime's Ray Donovan was shot in NYC and it's fun to spot places you know, which also holds true with HBO's sexy series The Deuce. Schreiber, who plays a fixer and is either beating people up, killing them or sleeping his way through each exciting episode said, "I remember finding 'Harold and Maude' strangely erotic. I've always had an octogenarian fetish." One of his co-stars Susan Sarandon is only 72, but confessed, "I look forward to being older, when what you look like becomes less and less an issue and what you are is the point." That said she looks great and Liev, who is divorcing Naomi Watts is now single and living amongst us.

NYC Television Festival

Tony Lo Bianco, who co-starred with Gene Hackman and Roy Scheider in The French Connection was given the Lifetime Achievement Award at the NYC Television Festival by founder Roberto Rizzo. In turn, Lo Bianco presented Chicago Fire actor Jeff Lima with the Rising Star Award.

Brooke Shields @ Art Miami

Amy Schumer and Supreme Court Justice Sonia Sotomayor have adored unique handbags by artist Michele Pred. The purses feature phrases like '#METOO', 'EQUAL PAY' and 'MY BODY, MY BUSINESS' that light up on the side. The pieces are being shown at Nick Korniloff's Art Miami.
