SATURDAY

Depicting the Invisible

The traditionally members-only Army and Navy Club has opened its doors to the public on Saturdays as it displays Depicting the Invisible: A Portrait Series of Veterans Suffering from PTSD. The exhibition, created by artist Susan J. Barron, highlights the prevalence of PTSD in the American veteran community, showcasing portraits of many American military vets who have survived the trauma of war and are living with post-traumatic stress disorder.
