

Artist Honors Veterans in Free Show at The Army and Navy Club Opening 2/1

By Roz - 02/02/2019 5

Artist Susan J. Barron is bringing her acclaimed portrait series, Depicting the Invisible: A Portrait Series of Veterans Suffering from PTSD, to The Army and Navy Club on Farragut Square in Washington DC, from February 15 through April 15.

The members-only Army and Navy Club will open its doors to the public on Saturdays (except March 2) from 11am to 2pm throughout the duration of the exhibition. The Club's dress code requires a coat and tie for men and comparable attire for women.

A private exhibition opening for members and guests will be held at the Club on February 15, from 6:30 pm to 8 pm, featuring a live conversation with the artist and author Charles W. "Chuck" Newhall III. Newhall is the author of "Fearful Odds, A Memoir of Vietnam and Its Aftermath," and is the most recent veteran to sit for a portrait with Barron.

The Army and Navy Club, 901 17th Street, NW, Washington, DC 20006.
