

HOT SHOTS

DAVID DATUNA DATUNA ART SPACE

The artist David Datuna has opened Datuna Art Space in Long Island City to showcase artists from around the world. The art and event space is housed in a repurposed taxi garage. On display was Datuna's iconic flag Portrait of America. Guild Hall will show a documentary about Datuna's life during the East Hampton TV, Art, and Film Festival on July 22 and 23. datuna.com

DAVID DATUNA

STRIDE ARTS INFUSION OF INK & CLAY

Angel Zhang, a gallerist and founder of Stride Arts, presented renowned Chinese artist Xiangdong Chen's show The Infusion of Ink & Clay at her UES gallery. The exhibition will run through August 16. stridearts.com. Chen will also show selections of his work, scrolls, and pottery along with a documentary about his life, during the East Hampton TV, Art and Film Festival on July 22 and 23. guildhall.org

ANGEL ZHANG, JOSH COHEN,
XIANGDONG CHEN

SUSAN J. BARRON

DEPICTING THE INVISIBLE

The critically acclaimed artist Susan Barron will show her documentary Depicting the Invisible about veterans with PTSD at Guild Hall, during the East Hampton TV, Art, and Film Festival, on July 23. Barron will also show her large-scale mixed-media portraits of these soldiers at the esteemed institution. Her book with the portraits of soldiers will benefit Freedom Fighters Outdoors. susanjbarron.com

ANTHOULA KATSIMATIDES,
SUSAN J. BARRON

MARINA DOJCHINOV

KEITH POWERS,
LUCIA HWONG GORDON, BEN KALLOS

CAROLINE JOHNSON, ROBERTO RIZZO

MUSICIAN FRANKIE SILVER

JEAN SHAFIROFF, CG AARONSON

MICHELE PEACOCK, DEBORAH KUHN,
LISA ROSENBAUM

